The 21st Annual Joint Conference of the IEEE Computer and Communications Societies

June 23-27, 2002, Hilton New York, New York, USA

<http://www.ieee-infocom.org/2002>

The major conference on computer communications and networking is celebrating its 21st anniversary at the Hilton New York in New York City during the week of June 23-27, 2002. The conference will bring researchers and practitioners of every aspect of data communications and networks together to present the most up-to-date results and achievements in the field. This year the number of submitted papers achieved a record of 947 papers, out of which 192 papers were selected through a rigorous refereeing process.

Infocom 2002 will feature a keynote speech by one of the pioneers in the networking field, several panels, half- and full-day tutorials, providing a tremendous opportunity for in-depth exposure to topics of current interest.

The Workshop on High-Speed Networking (formerly GBN) 2002 (www.comsoc.org/tcgn/conference/hsn2002), the 5th International Conference on Open Architectures and Network Programming, OPENARCH'02 (www.openarch.org), and the 1st Workshop on Disaster Recovery Networks, DIREN'02 (www.comet.columbia.edu/diren), will be held in conjunction with Infocom 2002.

The deadline for advance conference registration and hotel reservation is May 31, 2002.
